Address: @ http://www.ELITERATURE.ORG › go
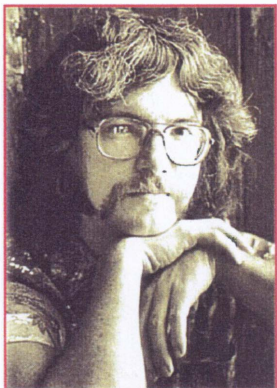

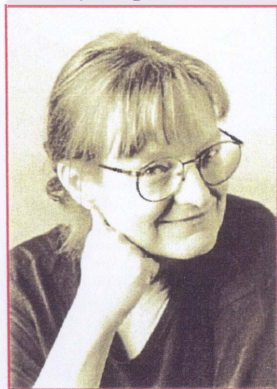

Favorites History Search Scrapbook Page Holder

Award Judges

Larry McCaffery, author of Storming the Reality Studio: A Casebook of Cyberpunk and Postmodern Science Fiction, and After Yesterday's Crash: The Avant Pop Anthology, will judge the Fiction competition.

Photo by Margaretta Mitchell

Heather McHugh, Chancellor of the Academy of American Poets and author of Hinge & Sign and The Father of the Predicaments, will judge the Poetry competition.

welcome to the
Electronic Literature Organization

call for submissions

The Electronic Literature Organization Announces The First Annual

Electronic Literature Awards

$10,000 Prizes
For Fiction & Poetry
www.eliterature.org/Awards2001/

$15.00 Reading Fee
Submissions Accepted
December 1, 2000 – February 15, 2001

Judging Criteria:

- Innovative use of electronic techniques and enhancements.
- Literary quality, understood as being related to print and electronic traditions of fiction and poetry.
- Quality and accessibility of interface design.

Sponsored by ZDNet

About ELO | 2001 Awards | Directory | ELO News | Membership |
Showcase | Community | Bulletin Board | Publishing | Tools