

Jason Nelson

Digital Writer and Artist

Tuesday, November 15

6:00-8:00 p.m.

EDA Room, 11000 Kinross Avenue, Westwood

Up-and-coming digital writer/artist JASON NELSON will give a presentation at UCLA on Tuesday, November 15.

Nelson, a poet raised on the Oklahoma plains, draws inspiration from space/place and the way it intersects with character-driven poetics. Currently a Lecturer in Cyberstudies, Interactive Writing, New Media Design and Theory at Australia's Griffith University School of Arts, Jason Nelson has had his works shown at galleries and in online journals around the world. His presentation will be a "combination of digital magic show, technical tutorial, and poetry reading." For anyone interested in electronic textuality, Nelson's rare appearance in L.A. is not to be missed.

The event will also be streamed live on the web.

Check out his work at: <http://www.heliozoa.com>
<http://www.secrettechnology.com>

For details and directions to the EDA, including how to view the live webcast, visit: <http://www.eda.ucla.edu/main/index.php>

This event is free and open to the public. Sponsored by the UCLA Department of English, UCLA Design/Media Arts, the Electronic Literature Organization, and the Centre for Public Culture and Ideas, Griffith University.